(10) in section 427A(i), by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

"(7) CONVERSION TO VARIABLE RATE.—(A) Subject to subparagraphs (C) and (D), a lender or holder shall convert the interest rate on a loan that is made pursuant to this part and is subject to the provisions of this subsection to a variable rate. Such conversion shall occur not later than January 1, 1995, and, commencing on the date of conversion, the applicable interest rate for each 12-month period beginning on July 1 and ending on June 30 shall be determined by the Secretary on the June 1 preceding each such 12-month period and be equal to the sum of (i) the bond equivalent rate of the 91-day Treasury bills auctioned at the final auction prior to such June 1; and (ii) 3.25 percent in the case of loans described in paragraph (1), or 3.10 percent in the case of loans described in paragraph (3).

“(B) In connection with the conversion specified in subparagraph (A) for any period prior to such conversion, and subject to paragraphs (C) and (D), a lender or holder shall convert the interest rate to a variable rate on a loan that is made pursuant to this part and is subject to the provisions of this subsection to a variable rate. The interest rates for such period shall be reset on a quarterly basis and the applicable interest rate for any quarter or portion thereof shall equal the sum of (i) the average of the bond equivalent rates of 91-Treasury bills auctioned for the preceding 3-month period, and (ii) 3.25 percent in the case of loans described in paragraph (1) or 3.10 percent in the case of loans described in paragraph (3). The rebate of excess interest derived through this conversion shall be provided to the borrower as specified in paragraph (5) for loans described in paragraph (1) or to the Government and borrower as specified in paragraph (3).

“(C) A lender or holder of a loan being converted pursuant to this paragraph shall complete such conversion on or before January 1, 1995. The lender or holder shall notify the borrower that the loan shall be converted to a variable interest rate and provide a description of the rate to the borrower not later than 30 days prior to the conversion. The notice shall advise the borrower that such rate shall be calculated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this paragraph and shall provide the borrower with a substantially equivalent benefit as the adjustment otherwise provided for under this subsection. Such notice may be incorporated into the disclosure required under section 433(b) if such disclosure has not been previously made.

“(D) The interest rate on a loan converted to a variable rate pursuant to this paragraph shall not exceed the maximum interest rate applicable to the loan prior to such conversion.

“(E) Loans on which the interest rate is converted in accordance with subparagraph (A) or (B) shall not be subject to any other provisions of this subsection.”;

(11) in section 428(a)(2)(C)(i), by striking the period at the end and inserting “; and”;

(12) in section 428(a)(2)(E), by inserting “or 428H” after “428A”;

“(c) ADJUSTMENTS FOR SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—A student financial aid administrator shall be considered to be making an adjustment for special circumstances in accordance with subsection (a) if—

“(A) in the case of a dependent student—

“(i) such student received a Federal Pell Grant as a dependent student in academic year 1992–1993 and the amount of such student’s Federal Pell Grant for academic year 1993–1994 is at least $500 less than the amount of such student’s Federal Pell Grant for academic year 1992–1993; and

“(ii) the decrease described in clause (i) is the direct result of a change in the determination of such student’s need for assistance in accordance with this part that is attributable to the enactment of the Higher Education Amendments of 1992; and

“(B) in the case of a single independent student—

“(i) such student received a Federal Pell Grant as a single independent student in academic year 1992–1993 and qualified as an independent student in accordance with section 480(d) for academic year 1993–1994, and the amount of such student’s Federal Pell Grant for academic year 1993–1994 is at least $500 less than the amount of such student’s Federal Pell Grant for academic year 1992–1993; and

“(ii) the decrease described in clause (i) is the direct result of a change in the determination of such student’s need for assistance in accordance with this part that is attributable to the enactment of the Higher Education Amendments of 1992.

“(2) AMOUNT.—A financial aid administrator shall not make an adjustment for special circumstances pursuant to this subsection in an amount that exceeds one-half of the difference between the amount of a student’s Federal Pell Grant for academic year 1992–1993 and the amount of such student’s Federal Pell Grant for academic year 1993–1994.

“(3) ACADEMIC YEAR LIMITATION.—A financial aid administrator shall make adjustments under this subsection only for Federal Pell Grants awarded for academic years 1993–1994, 1994–1995, and 1995–1996.

“(4) SPECIAL RULE.—Adjustments under this subsection shall be made in any fiscal year only if an Act that contains an appropriation for such fiscal year to carry out this subsection is enacted on or after the date of enactment of the Higher Education Technical Amendments of 1993.

“(5) LIMITATION.—Adjustments under this subsection shall not be available for any academic year to any student who, on the basis of the financial circumstances of the student for the current academic year, would not have been eligible for a grant under this section in academic year 1992–1993.”;

(17) in section 480(c)(2), by striking “Title” each place it appears and inserting “United States Code, title”;

“(k) DEPENDENTS.—(1) Except as otherwise provided, the term ‘dependent of the parent’ means the student, dependent children of the student’s parents, including those children who are deemed to be dependent students when applying for aid under this title, and other persons who live with and receive more than one-half of their support from the parent and will continue to receive more than half of their support from the parent during the award year.

“(2) Except as otherwise provided, the term ‘dependent of the student’ means the student’s dependent children and other persons (except the student’s spouse) who live with and receive more than one-half of their support from the student and will continue to receive more than half of their support from the student during the award year.

“(l) FAMILY SIZE.—(1) In determining family size in the case of a dependent student—

“(A) if the parents are not divorced or separated, family members include the student’s parents, and the dependents of the student’s parents including the student;

“(B) if the parents are divorced or separated, family members include the parent whose income is included in computing available income and that parent’s dependents, including the student; and

“(C) if the parents are divorced and the parent whose income is so included is remarried, or if the parent was a widow or widower who has remarried, family members also include, in addition to those individuals referred to in subparagraph (B), the new spouse and any dependents of the new spouse if that spouse’s income is included in determining the parents’ adjusted available income.

“(2) In determining family size in the case of an independent student—

“(A) family members include the student, the student’s spouse, and the dependents of the student; and

“(B) if the student is divorced or separated, family members do not include the spouse (or ex-spouse), but do include the student and the student’s dependents.

“(m) BUSINESS ASSETS.—The term ‘business assets’ means property that is used in the operation of a trade or business, including real estate, inventories, buildings, machinery, and other equipment, patents, franchise rights, and copyrights.”.

(A) by striking “institutution” and inserting “institution”; and

(B) by striking “association leading to the suspension” and inserting “association, described in paragraph (2)(A)(i), (2)(B), or (2)(C) of subsection (a) of this section, leading to the suspension”;

(8) in section 496(n)(1), by amending subparagraph (B) to read as follows:

“(B) site visits, including unannounced site visits as appropriate, at accrediting agencies and associations, and, at the Secretary’s discretion, at representative member institutions.”;

(9) in section 498(c)—

(A) in paragraph (2), by adding at the end the following new sentences: “Such criteria shall take into account any differences in generally accepted accounting principles, and the financial statements required thereunder, that are applicable to for profit and nonprofit institutions. The Secretary shall take into account an institution’s total financial circumstances in making a determination of its ability to meet the standards herein required.”;

(B) in the matter preceding subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3), by striking “may determine” and inserting “shall determine”;

(C) by amending subparagraph (C) of paragraph (3) to read as follows:

“(C) such institution establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary, with the support of a financial statement audited by an independent certified public accountant in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, that the institution has sufficient resources to ensure against the precipitous closure of the institution, including the ability to meet all of its financial obligations (including refunds of institutional charges and repayments to the Secretary for liabilities and debts incurred in programs administered by the Secretary); or”;

(D) by redesignating paragraphs (4) and (5) as paragraphs (5) and (6), respectively; and

(E) by inserting after paragraph (3) the following new paragraph:

“(4) If an institution of higher education that provides a 2-year or 4-year program of instruction for which the institution awards an associate or baccalaureate degree fails to meet the ratio of current assets to current liabilities imposed by the Secretary pursuant to paragraph (2), the Secretary shall waive that particular requirement for that institution if the institution demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Secretary that—

“(A) there is no reasonable doubt as to its continued solvency and ability to deliver quality educational services;

“(B) it is current in its payment of all current liabilities, including student refunds, repayments to the Secretary, payroll, and payment of trade creditors and withholding taxes; and

“(C) it has substantial equity in school-occupied facilities, the acquisition of which was the direct cause of its failure to meet the current operating ratio requirement.”;

(10) in section 498(f), by inserting after the second sentence the following: “The Secretary may establish priorities by which institutions are to receive site visits, and may coordinate such visits with site visits by States, guaranty agencies, and accrediting bodies in order to eliminate duplication, and reduce administrative burden.”;

(11) in section 498(h)(1)(B), by amending clause (iii) to read as follows:

“(iii) the Secretary determines that an institution that seeks to renew its certification is, in the judgment of the Secretary, in an administrative or financial condition that may jeopardize its ability to perform its financial responsibilities under a program participation agreement.”;

(12) in section 498, by amending subsection (i)(1) to read as follows:

“(i) TREATMENT OF CHANGES OF OWNERSHIP.—(1) An eligible institution of higher education that has had a change in ownership resulting in a change of control shall not qualify to participate in programs under this title after the change in control (except as provided in paragraph (3)) unless it establishes that it meets the requirements of section 481 (other than the requirements in subsections (b)(5) and (c)(3)) and this section after such change in control.”;

(13) in section 498(i)(3), by amending subparagraph (A) to read as follows:

“(A) the sale or transfer, upon the death of an owner of an institution, of the ownership interest of the deceased in that institution to a family member or to a person holding an ownership interest in that institution; or”;

(14) in section 498, by amending subsection (j)(1) to read as follows:

“(j) TREATMENT OF BRANCHES.—(1) A branch of an eligible institution of higher education, as defined pursuant to regulations of the Secretary, shall be certified under this subpart before it may participate as part of such institution in a program under this title, except that such branch shall not be required to meet the requirements of sections 481(b)(5) and 481(c)(3) prior to seeking such certification. Such branch is required to be in existence at least 2 years prior to seeking certification as a main campus or free-standing institution.”; and

(15) in section 498A(e), by striking “Act,” and inserting “Act”.

(j) AMENDMENTS TO TITLES V THROUGH XII OF THE ACT.—Titles V through XII of the Act (20 U.S.C. 1101 et seq.) are amended—

(28) in section 922, by amending subsection (f) to read as follows:

“(f) INSTITUTIONAL PAYMENTS.—(1) The Secretary shall pay to the institution of higher education, for each individual awarded a fellowship under this part at such institution, an institutional allowance. Except as provided in paragraph (2), such allowance shall be—

“(A) $6,000 annually with respect to individuals who first received fellowships under this part prior to academic year 1993–1994; and

“(B) with respect to individuals who first receive fellowships during or after academic year 1993–1994—

“(i) $9,000 for the academic year 1993–1994; and

“(ii) for succeeding academic years, $9,000 adjusted annually thereafter in accordance with inflation as determined by the Department of Labor’s Consumer Price Index for the previous calendar year.

“(2) The institutional allowance paid under paragraph (1) shall be reduced by the amount the institution charges and collects from a fellowship recipient for tuition and other expenses as part of the recipient’s instructional program.”;

(29) in the second sentence of section 923(b)(1), by striking “granting of such fellowships” and all that follows through “set forth in this section,” and inserting “granting of such fellowships for an additional period of study not to exceed one 12-month period.”;

(30) in section 923(b)(2), by striking out the second and third sentences and inserting the following: “Such period shall not exceed a total of 3 years, consisting of not more than 2 years of support for study or research, and not more than

1 year of support for dissertation work, provided that the student has attained satisfactory progress prior to the dissertation stage, except that the Secretary may provide by regulation for the granting of such fellowships for an additional period of study not to exceed one 12-month period, under special circumstances which the Secretary determines would most effectively serve the purposes of this part. The Secretary shall make a determination to provide such 12-month extension of an award to an individual fellowship recipient for study or research upon review of an application for such extension by the recipient. The institution shall provide 2 years of support for each student following the years of Federal predissertation support under this part. Any student receiving an award for graduate study leading to a doctoral degree shall receive at least 1 year of supervised training in instruction during such student's doctoral program.”;

(31) in section 923(b), by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

“(3) CONTINUATION OF AWARDS UNDER PRIOR LAW.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the case of an individual who was awarded a multiyear fellowship under this part before the date of enactment of the Higher Education Amendments of 1992, awards to such individual for the remainder of such fellowship may, at the discretion of the institution of higher education attended by such individual, be subject to the requirements of this subsection as in effect prior to such date of enactment. The institution shall be required to exercise such discretion at the time that its application to the Secretary for a grant under this part, and the amount of any such grant, are being considered by the Secretary.”;

(32) in section 924, by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary may use funds appropriated pursuant to this section for fiscal year 1994 to make continuation awards under section 923(b)(3) to individuals who would have been eligible for such awards in fiscal year 1993 if such section had been in effect.”;

(33) in section 931(a), by inserting after the first sentence the following new sentence: “These fellowships shall be awarded to students intending to pursue a doctoral degree, except that fellowships may be granted to students pursuing a master's degree in those fields in which the master's degree is commonly accepted as the appropriate degree for a tenured-track faculty position in a baccalaureate degree-granting institution.”;
